

BRIEF STATE NEWS

New Britain.—All Union Barber shops will close at 10 o'clock every Saturday night, commencing August 4th.

Fair Haven.—Sherman I. Graves, supervisor of school gardens, has gone to his former home in Richmond, Me., for a short vacation.

Bristol.—The switchboard and line employees of the Southern New England Telephone Company's Hartford office had a barbecue at Composure Wednesday.

Litchfield.—Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Schlecht of Phelps Farm are to leave Litchfield on September 1st to assume the management of Hotel Clark in Derby.

Ridgefield.—The name of George F. Ingersoll has been sent to the senate by President Wilson as envoy extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Kingdom of Spain.

Cornwall.—The library has received the gift of a framed portrait of Dr. Hurrett B. North, who practiced medicine here many years ago and was president of the County Medical society and of the library in its earlier days.

New Haven.—The receipts at the New Haven post office for July, show an increase of 1 per cent. over the same month last year. The receipts amounted to $58,312.97, against $57,196.97 for July, 1915, an increase of $1,115.99.

Waterbury.—The board of finance, has approved a report of the Board of Public Safety in regard to the increase in pay for the local firemen. The action of the Finance Board increases the pay of the firemen 25 cents a day.

Stamford.—The department of justice has been notified of the action of a man who, it is charged, posing here as Captain William Clark, U. S. A. stole a gold watch and defrauded Miss Amelia Slater, boarding-house keeper out of four days' board for himself and his wife.

Morris Cove.—Through the kindness of the Camp Fire Girls, who have volunteered their services to busy mothers, anyone wishing to attend the Red Cross group meetings on Monday afternoon may leave children in the care of the girls who will devote their time to this splendid purpose.

Old Saybrook.—The Red Cross society will put up fruits, vegetables and make war jam for the benefit of the Red Cross, beginning Friday, August 10th, from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. at Masonic hall kitchen. The surplus cash vegetables from several gardens have been contributed for the special work.

New Haven.—One hundred and fifty tons of produce were purchased at the new city market which opened Wednesday morning, and dealers from this county, Waterbury, Ansonia and as far away as Torrington, came here to buy fruits and vegetables. Ninety dealers asked for allotment of stalls.

Rockville.—When Martin Laubscher, chief clerk at the White, Corbin Division of the Hartford Telephone company, reached his office Wednesday morning, he was surprised to find 38 roses on his desk. These were the gift of the office force, and each rose marked a year of service for Captain Laubscher.

Hartford.—Milk dealers have failed the storekeepers in many instances and many families who rely for their milk upon small grocery stores, are no longer able to get it, and last week there were several cases reported to the Hartford County League, where families were unable to obtain milk for their evening meal.

New Haven.—Attorney Bernard E. Lynch was Wednesday appointed by Judge Thomas in the United States court recorder in charge of the Hotel Royal at 233 Meadow street as a result of an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Albert E. LaZaro, the proprietor. The petitioning creditors are Wiseman and Lapides, owners of the property where the hotel is located. They have a claim of $2,500 for rent.

East Hartford.—Three teachers of the local schools have sent their resignation to the town school committee. They are Miss Anna C. Creighton, teacher in the third grade at the Second North school; Miss Mabel L. Radcliffe, teacher in the fourth grade of the Second North school, and Miss Mary E. Halloran, teacher of the sixth grade of the South Grammar school.

Arms and Legs.—What shall we call the new government ale, which appears to possess the requisite beer flavor, though somewhat deficient in "body" as compared with the old fourpenny? One man on Saturday evoked curiosity by calling for "Arms and Legs." He was promptly supplied with a tankard of the new brew.—London Chronicle.
